TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Jonah 3:1-5, 10: Jonah, obeying God, warned Nineveh of impending destruction. The city's inhabitants, from all ranks, sincerely repented, leading God to spare Nineveh from the foretold disaster.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 25: R. Teach me your ways, O Lord. I seek the Lord's guidance in His truths and paths. Remembering His mercy and love, I ask for His teaching, as He leads the humble in justice and righteousness.

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 7:29-31: Live with the awareness that our earthly experiences, whether in marriage, sorrow, joy, or material dealings, are fleeting. The world's present form is passing, emphasizing a transient existence.

Gospel - Mark 1:14-20: After John's arrest, Jesus went to Galilee, preaching God's imminent kingdom and urging repentance and belief in His message. By the Sea of Galilee, He called Simon and Andrew, fishermen, to follow Him and become 'fishers of men.' They promptly did. Next, Jesus summoned James and John, who also instantly left their father and work to follow Him, illustrating the compelling nature of Jesus' call and message.

LET'S GO FISHING!!!

When Jesus asks us to believe in the Gospel, it is the same as saying that we must believe in Him.

Repentance is the first requirement to enter into the Kingdom of God. It means to turn away from sin and to turn towards Jesus and to leave behind our old way of living and to start anew with love, faith and hope as the main characteristics of our behavior.

When Jesus claims that the Kingdom of God is at hand, He is practically saying "Here I am to save you and your household. Start believing." It is at hand because He was literally in the midst of people and they can reach out to him and be filled with joy and peace. That is why when Jesus travelled from town to town, He brought enlightenment as He taught with authority, gave sight to the blind, healed the sick, cast out demons, fed the hungry and even raise the dead to life again. All of these are manifestations of the Kingdom that Jesus inaugurated.

Yet Jesus cannot build up the Kingdom alone. So He called and trained some people to help Him. Starting with four fishermen namely Simon, Andrew, James and John, He formed a community of 12 Apostles to become the nucleus of the Kingdom. See how the initial four Apostles left everything to follow Jesus. They did not have any reservation at all. They just followed!

Listen! Maybe Jesus is calling YOU to help build His Kingdom!
