Fifth SUNDAY OF LENT

Go, and from now on do not sin any more.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Isaiah 43:16-21: God, who controls nature and armies, urges to forget the past and see His new works: paths in wilderness, rivers in deserts, providing for His chosen people, made to praise Him.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 126: R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy. When the Lord restored Zion, our joy was like a dream, filled with laughter and praise. Nations recognized His great deeds. We pray for continued restoration and joyful harvest.

Second Reading - Philippians 3:8-14: Everything is considered a loss compared to knowing Christ. Righteousness comes from faith, not law. Striving to know Christ's power and share His sufferings, we press on towards eternal life with Him.

Gospel - John 8:1-11: At the temple, Jesus encountered a woman accused of adultery, brought by scribes and Pharisees seeking to trap him. He suggested only a sinless person should cast the first stone. Her accusers left, and Jesus, left alone with the woman, chose not to condemn her, advising her to abandon her sinful life.
