FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 30, 2023

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — All peoples called by God will receive the gift of the Spirit if they repent and are baptized (Acts 2:14a, 36-41).

Psalm — My shepherd is the Lord; I shall not want (Psalm 23).

Second Reading — Once we were like straying sheep; but now we have been returned to the shepherd, our guardian (1 Peter 2:20b-25).

Gospel — The shepherd leads the sheep out into pastures of abundant life (John 10:1-10).

The Lord is my Shepherd

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Today's readings invite us to recognize our need for Jesus who ensures our safety, nourishes us, and leads us to peace and security, like sheep who rest in the care of a good shepherd. Today, we ponder the incredible news that Jesus accepted death on the cross in order to open the gates of eternal life with God for us. Through his resurrection, Jesus protects and saves us from the power of sin and death. We need only accept his love and live as God's people in this life, relying on the Lord who is the door to new life for us and for all.

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, tells us that he calls his own sheep by name and those sheep respond by following him. Today Jesus, the Good Shepherd, speaks to each one of us, the sheep of his flock. Let us listen for the call to follow him as his disciples. And on this World Day of Prayer for Vocations, let us pray for others, as well, to hear and heed whatever God is calling them to do with their life as a baptized Christian.

Jesus tells us that He is our shepherd and He is also the gate. Let us strive to go through the gate, which although narrow, He opens wide for us Let us all bear witness that all our hope is in Him!
