Where two or three
are gathered together
in my name,
there am I in the midst.

- Matthew 18:20 -

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading – Ezekiel 33:7-9: I appoint you as watchman for the house of Israel. If you fail to warn the wicked and they die in guilt, you're responsible. If you warn them and they don't turn, they die, but you're saved.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9: R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. Let us sing joyfully to the Lord, acclaiming our salvation, and coming into His presence with thanksgiving. But heed the warning not to harden our hearts, reflecting on past disobedience.

Second Reading – Romans 13:8-10: Owing love to one another fulfills the law. The commandments are summarized by loving your neighbor as yourself, for love does no evil and is the complete fulfillment of the law.

Gospel – Matthew 18:15-20: If a brother sins, discuss it privately, then with witnesses if needed, and finally with the church. What is agreed on earth reflects in heaven, and where people gather in Jesus's name, he is present.

If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you.

Jesus acknowledges the presence of conflict and mistakes and offers a practical approach to manage them.

I thank God for blessing me with your kindness, faith and love during my years at the parish.

Blessings to all, Father Joe
