TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading—Exodus 22:20-26: Do not oppress aliens, widows, or orphans; I will hear their cries. Don't charge interest to your poor neighbors, and return pledged cloaks before sunset. I am compassionate.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 18: R. I love you, Lord, my strength. I love you, Lord, for you are my strength, rock, and deliverer. Praised be the Lord; I am safe from enemies and blessed. You give victories and show kindness.

Second Reading — 1 Thessalonians 1:5C-10: You followed our example and the Lord's, receiving the word even in hardship. Your faith has become a model for believers far and wide, and you've turned from idols to serve God.

Gospel —Matthew 22:34-40: A scholar tests Jesus on the greatest commandment. Jesus says it's to love God fully and the second is like it, love your neighbor as yourself. These sum up all law and prophets.

LOVE COMMANDED

Good News: The greatest commandment is to love God and your neighbor as yourself. Today Jesus is asking us to be wholehearted. Both commandments are challenging. How do we love God with all our heart, soul, and mind? First of all, we cannot give what we do not have. We cannot love God without knowing Him and experiencing that He loved us first. God should be first and foremost in our lives, in everything that we think, do, or say.

The instruction to love our neighbor as we love ourselves may be more challenging. Our task is to seek the greatest good for our neighbor (family member, friend, stranger and coworker) just as we seek good for ourselves. Think of others as more important than yourself! Love is at the core of Christianity. Love bursts into life in the presence of and as a response to others.

Love is not just a feeling. It is an action. A Choice. It is shown by serving God and others with our time, talent, and treasure. In short, the proof of love is service. Hopefully it will be our love of the Father and of the neighbor that will motivate all our thoughts and actions. God wants us to love Him and to love others, so He will help us do it!

ALL SOULS' EVE LUMINARIA

November 1 at 5:15

All parishioners are invited to place luminaries/flowers throughout the cemetery in remembrance of loved ones.

Luminaries can be purchased after masses or at the cemetery

Release a Holy Soul from Purgatory!

Indulgenced Acts to obtain a Plenary Indulgence for Holy Souls:

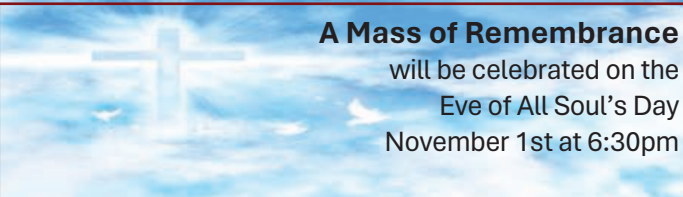

- From November 1 to 8: visit a cemetery and say a mental prayer such as...
'Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.'
- On November 2: alternatively, you may visit a church and say one Our Father and one Creed

In addition, you must always satisfy these three general conditions for any Plenary Indulgence (twenty days before or after the indulgenced act):

A Plenary Indulgence for a particular Holy Soul can be earned every day from November 1-8 by repeating all the steps for each day (but we only need to go to Confession once).

A Mass of Remembrance

will be celebrated on the Eve of All Soul's Day
November 1st at 6:30pm
