TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Wisdom 6:12-16: Wisdom is radiant and doesn't fade, easily found by those who seek her. She eagerly meets those who watch for her and brings freedom from worry to the worthy.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 63: R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God. I seek and thirst for God, finding greater good in His kindness than in life itself. I find satisfaction and joy in meditating on Him and calling upon His name.

Second Reading - 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 OR 4:13-14: Don't grieve without hope for those who've died. If we believe in Jesus' resurrection, the dead will also rise. At Jesus' return, both the dead and living will meet Him.

Gospel - Matthew 25:1-13: Jesus shares a parable about ten virgins waiting for a bridegroom. Five are wise and bring extra oil, while five are foolish and don't. When the bridegroom arrives, only the wise ones can join him

Reflection: Are you wise or foolish?

Good News: Those who are ready will go into the wedding feast with the bridegroom.

The Parable of the Ten Virgins tells us primarily the message of readiness to meet our creator. Nobody knows the time or day. That is why, the present moment is very critical. It is all we have. In the words of one song, yesterday is gone and tomorrow will never be ours. Therefore, we must spend every moment of our life to prepare.

What should we prepare? Let us make an inventory. Are we attired with the garment of purity? Do we have the oil of faith, the lamp of hope and the vessel of love? If our garment is stained with sin, there is still time to wash it with repentance and forgiveness. If our oil is at its lowest amount, let us increase it with prayer. If our lamp is not functioning, fix it with the inspiring Word of God. If our vessel is empty, allow the Holy Spirit to fill it with its power.

We know that at any time our Creator will call us into His Kingdom. We just don't know the exact time. For the wise, there is no problem. Their entire life on earth is but a preparation for that moment of encounter with the Lord. But the fool continues to ignore this warning. It is to him or her that the Lord will say "I do not know you". Choose to be wise. Be ready at any time.
