TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading - Isaiah 63:16B-17, 19B; 64:2-7: We acknowledge You as our eternal redeemer, yet we've strayed and become sinful. We long for Your mighty presence and deeds, as we are lost without Your guidance.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 80: R. Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved. Shepherd of Israel, hear us and save us. Look down, care for us, and let Your face shine upon us that we may be strong and faithful.

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 1:3-9: I thank God for the grace given to you, enriching you with knowledge and spiritual gifts as you await Jesus Christ, who will keep you steadfast until His return.

Gospel - Mark 13:33-37: Jesus advises his disciples to stay vigilant as no one knows when He will return. It's likened to a man going on a journey who instructs his servants to be watchful in his absence, emphasizing the need to remain prepared at all times.

WATCH FOR HIM—reflection by Scott Hahn

The new Church year begins with a plea for God’s visitation. “Oh that you would rend the heavens and come down,” the prophet Isaiah cries in today’s First Reading. In today’s Psalm, too, we hear the anguished voice of Israel, imploring God to look down from His heavenly throne—to save and shepherd His people. Today’s readings are relatively brief. Their language and “message” are deceptively simple. But we should take note of the serious mood and penitential aspect of the Liturgy today—as the people of Israel recognize their sinfulness, their failures to keep God’s covenant, their inability to save themselves.

And in this Advent season, we should examine our consciences. We too often harden our hearts, refuse His rule, wander from His ways, withhold our love from Him. God is faithful, Paul reminds us in today’s Epistle. He is our Father. He has hearkened to the cry of His children, coming down from heaven for Israel’s sake and for ours to redeem us from our exile from God, to restore us to His love.

In Jesus, we have seen the Father. The Father has let His face shine upon us. He is the good shepherd come to guide us to the heavenly kingdom. No matter how far we have strayed, He will give us new life if we turn to Him, if we call upon His holy name, if we pledge anew never again to withdraw from Him. As Paul says today, He has given us every spiritual gift—especially the Eucharist and penance—to strengthen us as we await Christ’s final coming. He will keep us firm to the end—if we let Him.

So, in this season of repentance, we should heed the warning—repeated three times by Jesus in today’s Gospel— watch! For we know not the hour when the Lord of the house will return. WATCH YOURSELVES!
