WEDDING MUSIC

Organist: Kelli Naugles

Soloists: Stephanie Cuvier or Mary Joan Kendrot

Music Celebrations should be appropriate for liturgical usage and expressive of the Christian vision of marriage. If you are in doubt about a particular piece of music, please, discuss it with the organist and singer, as well as the priest. Music, which is appropriate for the reception hall is not necessarily suitable for the church ceremony because of the words and expressions of love, or the musical score itself. A clear distinction should be made when planning the music for your wedding day. Theme songs from certain movies are entirely inappropriate at a liturgical ceremony.

*Selections of songs must be finalized ONE week before the wedding date. Also, if there are any changes of the final program you must notify the organist and soloist 48 hours before the ceremony.

Please send , e-mail, or fax the wedding music planner (see attached form) to the church's office the latest one week before the wedding.
