Jesus said,
“Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind regain their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have the good news proclaimed to them.”

Matthew 11:4-5

Be patient,
brothers
and sisters,
until the coming of the Lord.

See how the farmer waits
for the precious
fruit of the earth,
being patient with it
until it receives
the early and
the late rains.
James 5:7

James wrote to a community experiencing hardship, like the exiled Israelites in today's first reading. Isaiah and James exhort people to trust that they will see God's presence in their midst once again, so be patient. That's easier said than done, isn't it? Saint Francis de Sales says to be patient with everyone, and most of all with ourselves. Patience means accepting suffering and delay without becoming angry or upset. Easier said than done. Praying for this virtue each day, sometimes often throughout the day, does help. Breathe in the Spirit of God and say, "Give me patience, Lord." Then exhale anger, upset, and impatience. Staring at a garden won't make a shoot spring up any faster; however, giving thanks for the seed, the water, the soil, and the Giver of all life can deepen our trust that the garden will grow. So be patient. Rejoice always. See and be the signs of God's beauty and bounty in our world today. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Today's Readings: First Reading - The barren deserts will rejoice and flower. Tired bodies will receive strength. Aching hearts will be made glad (Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10); Psalm - The Lord saves us when he comes (Psalm 146); Second Reading - Be patient, for the coming of the Lord is as sure as the rain (James 5:7-10); Gospel - Tell of what you hear and see: The blind regain their vision, the crippled their movement, the deaf their hearing
