Church Policies

Flash photography and videography are permitted. Professionals should be as invisible as possible to preserve the sacredness of the Sacrament.
Have the professionals meet the Priest or Deacon before the wedding to check in.

Florists may not move or replace any existing flower arrangements in the church. Florists must respect the integrity of the church sanctuary. Have florists contact the Rectory Office to schedule deliveries. Flowers must be removed immediately following the wedding.

Flower petals, rice, confetti, or any tossed material are not permitted on church property.
Aisle runners are not permitted.
These items are a safety hazard and are difficult to clean.

NO ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES
are permitted on Church Grounds Our Churches are a Sanctuary on Holy Ground

Confirm the date and time of your Rehearsal and Wedding before your wedding invitations are printed. Programs must be approved prior to printing.

Do you have a Family Member or Friend who is a Deacon or Priest? Ask for a letter of 'Good Standing' to be sent to the Pastor to welcome them to celebrate your wedding.
Due during wedding prep
