No one who performs a mighty deed

in my name can speak ill of me

The gift of the Spirit is given freely, not according to human expectations, but according to the generosity of God. God's spirit is shared widely and blows where it wills. Moses was shaping the people of Israel and wished everyone could possess the spirit of God and proclaim it to the nations. Jesus similarly was shaping the community of disciples, to encounter God who doesn't fit their preconceptions. This encounter, when received with humility, widens their vision and deepens their faith. God continues to shape the Church similarly today, to open us up to God's freedom. Psalm 19 celebrates the perfection of God's law, and how it brings joy and delight.

Sometimes our most difficult obstacles lie deep within. Like our hands and feet, some attitudes and habits are deeply a part of us, and their removal would be traumatic for us. Yet we know that some beliefs or behaviors harm ourselves or others. We need a prayerful watchfulness about our inner life. When necessary, we need a fierce resistance to anything that places us or others in danger. And what we need most is Reconciliation with God. We do not want to be separated from God forever in Hell, but joyful with him forever in Heaven. -Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
