Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.
Many rich people put in large sums.
A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

Mark 12:41-42

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The widow of Zarephath had only a handful of flour and a little oil, but made a little cake for Elijah (1 Kings 17:10-16).

Psalm — Praise the Lord, my soul! (Psalm 146).

Second Reading — Christ will appear a second time to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him (Hebrews 9:24-28).

Gospel — Beware of those who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces and places of honor at banquets (Mark 12:38-44 [41-44]).

FINANCIAL CORNER

Thank you for your concern for our church and for your generosity!

DO ANYTHING

*I will go anywhere
and do anything
in order to communicate
the love of Jesus to those who do not know him or have forgotten him.*

—St. Frances Xavier Cabrini

Release a Holy Soul from Purgatory!

Indulgenced Acts to obtain a Plenary Indulgence for Holy Souls:

- ❑ From November 1 to 8: visit a cemetery and say a mental prayer such as...
'Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.'
- ❑ On November 2: alternatively, you may visit a church and say one Our Father and one Creed

In addition, you must always satisfy these three general conditions for any Plenary Indulgence (twenty days before or after the indulgenced act):

A Plenary Indulgence for a particular Holy Soul can be earned every day from November 1-8 by repeating all the steps for each day (but we only need to go to Confession once).

THE POOR

Today, two widows are presented, the Old Testament's widow of Zarephath and the Gospel's widow of the temple. Both exemplify faith-filled people who quietly give what they cannot afford: their all, for the glory of God and in the service of others.

As Christians, we hear a lot about the witness and service that we are called to render to the poor among us. However, the poor also have a witness and a service to render to us. Like the actions of the widow in today's Gospel, the openness and generosity of many of those who are poor, even in the midst of their own poverty, bear witness to the fact that, ultimately, we can depend only on God. Giving one's all witnesses that God will give all to anyone who trusts in divine goodness.

The poor or disadvantaged also serve. They serve judgment on our individual and corporate ways of acting. If people are sleeping in our streets, that is a judgment on our priorities regarding others. At the same time, the poor can act as mediators of salvation. When they care for others they can redeem our indifference and insensibility, lead us to care as well, and save us from ourselves. Therefore, we are to make our own gift of self to God in our unceasing gift of self-sacrificing love to others until Jesus comes again. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than going to a garage
makes you an automobile.

—Billy Sunday

FEAST OF FAITH—Concluding Rites

The Prayer after Communion gives us a glimpse of the heavenly banquet, of which we have had a foretaste in the Eucharist. The concluding rites speak of what we are to do with this great gift of God. That includes the parish announcements, which are usually given following the Prayer after Communion. Believe it or not, the announcements, which are not an "official" part of the Mass, have been included in the Mass from as early as the fifth century! The deacon or the homilist—even the bishop—would announce coming liturgical celebrations and encourage the people to participate. Today's parish announcements include opportunities for prayer, service, learning, and community building. They should be succinct and should include only significant events and activities in the life of the parish. But even when they are long and tedious, the announcements (and the parish bulletin) flow out of the concluding rites of the Mass. They offer us ways to live the Eucharist, to become what we have received—the Body of Christ, living and active in our local community. Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.
