Just Look at the Cross

The common theme of today's readings is forgiveness. The Gospel is one familiar to us all. In the parable, Jesus is showing us the depths of God's love, the illogical, incredible love God has for each of us. Paul in the second reading highlights his story of receiving God's mercy. He acknowledges his reliance on it in his letter to Timothy. Moses counted on this loving mercy as he spoke for the wandering people The Lord, points out how bad Israel has been. Moses, points out how good God is, in the promise to make them a great nation. The important point is that God relented and forgave the people. In each case, great sins are forgiven—not because the people deserved it, but because they were loved.

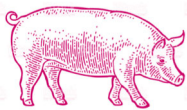

My favorite line in the second reading is "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners"—not to find the wealthiest people to build his kingdom, or the nicest, or the holiest; he came to save sinners. The Pharisees and scribes did not get this. That was one of the reasons they wanted to kill Jesus. And yet, when they did just that, Jesus' death on the cross brought forgiveness for us all. Sometimes we can't believe that God would love us so much as to forgive any sin. Just look at the cross if you need a reminder. God desires to draw you close, seeking you when you are lost. Are you ready to be drawn into God's loving embrace? Tom Schmidt, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Because Moses interceded, the LORD relented and did not punish the people (Exodus 32:7-11, 13-14); Psalm — I will rise and go to my father (Psalm 51); Second Reading — Paul expresses his gratitude for being appointed to the ministry (1 Timothy 1:12-17); Gospel — There is great rejoicing in heaven when a sinner repents (Luke 15:1-32 [1-10]).
